

Contact: Machie Madden
machie.madden@landersmadden.com
Maureen Landers
maureen.landiers@landersmadden.com
212.292.8560

PINSTRIPe PROMOTES JILL SCHWIETERS TO PRESIDENT OF PINSTRIPe HEALTHCARE

BROOKFIELD, WI – March XX, 2010 – Pinstripe, Inc., a leading human resources and recruitment process outsourcing (RPO) specialist and the second largest pure play RPO firm in the country, today named Jill Schwieters to President of the company's healthcare practice. In this role, Schwieters is responsible for continuing to expand the organization's healthcare footprint, increasing the quality of client relationships by bringing critical solutions to Healthcare customers, and elevating Pinstripe's value and relevance to these customers. Jill will remain executive vice president of Pinstripe, Inc. and a member of the Executive Operating Team. She will also continue to lead select company wide initiatives.

"Jill listens, learns, evaluates and innovates to ensure that the solutions we apply to healthcare providers are exactly tailored to the particular challenges and opportunities they face", stated Pinstripe CEO Susan Marks. The original founder and leader of Pinstripe Healthcare, Jill continues to lead the group, oversee the strategy for continual growth, and nurture and cultivate relationships throughout the industry

"As we work to accelerate our growth and maintain our uncontested market leadership in the healthcare sector, Jill Schwieters' commitment is unparalleled.," continued Marks. "Jill and the Pinstripe Healthcare team deliver clear and quantifiable value to healthcare organizations across the country through strategic and effective talent management at all levels. Jill's leadership, both in our company and in the industry overall has helped us successfully gain market share quickly. Her client-centric approach and exceptional results delivery, exemplify Pinstripe's intense 'we become you' philosophy."

"The healthcare industry today is confronting tremendous challenges and great uncertainty. I feel fortunate to work in an organization that is able to provide solutions to healthcare providers that reduce costs, improve operational efficiencies and drive innovation. Pinstripe Healthcare is poised to meet the new challenges, and support the industry by elevating the conversation around human capital, providing the tools and latest approaches to help our clients find the best talent so they can deliver the highest possible quality patient care," commented Jill Schwieters, Pinstripe Executive Vice President.

About Pinstripe Healthcare

Pinstripe Healthcare designs, builds and delivers high-performance talent acquisition and management solutions. Pinstripe's innovative approach integrates, sourcing, recruiting, hiring, onboarding, and engagement into a complete, end-to-end solution. Pinstripe Healthcare's seasoned group of healthcare professionals work with clients to attract the best available talent so they can deliver high quality patient care and reduce overall labor costs. The team's depth of provider-side experience brings an insider's perspective to each of Pinstripe's healthcare relationships, and allows the firm to offer a complete range of customized human resource services that meet the needs of every customer. By partnering with Pinstripe, leading healthcare organizations are able to transform their human resources function into a driver of sustainable, competitive advantage. For more information, please visit www.pinstripehealthcare.com

###